Nuclear Innovation Bootcamp

On August 2nd we concluded the 7th annual Nuclear Innovation Bootcamp hosted in partnership with the University of Wyoming School of Energy Resources. Thank you to all of our amazing speakers, mentors, organizers and sponsors. A very special thank you to the NIB2024 cohort for being the reason we do this every year! Shout out to team CritiCality for winning the pitch competition. We cannot wait to see all the amazing things this team does in the future!

NIB Alumni Spotlight!

- Congratulations to John Mobley IV for starting his PhD in Nuclear Engineering at the University of Michigan.
- Congratulations to Dr. Lewis Handy-Cardenas for successfully defending his PhD thesis in "Advanced High-Temperature Molten Salt Pump Systems and Subcomponent Development for CSP and MSR."
- Shout out to Xucheng Zhao for completing the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Education & Research Center (NEREC) 2024 Fellowship at KAIST.
- Check out Julia Sweatman's write-up on the Nuclear Innovation Bootcamp, highlighting all of the key elements of NIB2024. Click here to read.
- Shout out to CJ Cruz for beginning his graduate studies in Public Policy and Nuclear Engineering at the University of California, Berkeley.
